

I would not hesitate to recommend Greg Lui-Kwan. When it comes to personal injury attorneys, Mr. Lui-Kwan is one of the finest. He is tenacious, intelligent and compassionate with an ability to zero in on the issues and explain the legal process in a way that you can understand. He has kept me informed, explained things thoroughly and was available whenever I had a question or concern. I know that he genuinely cares about the well-being of his clients and he work tirelessly until a settlement is reached. I would recommend him to anyone seeking a personal injury attorney because he puts the client's needs first. Mr. Lui-Kwan is the attorney that you want representing you.
